more THAN JUST A meal plan

UCF Dining Events

Every month we host themed parties in our Dining Halls with elevated menus, fun activities, and extra giveaways.

UCF Dining hosts farmers market once a month in the '63 South. Once a semester there is a farmers market in the Student Union courtyard.

Our goal is to provide convenient access to local fresh fruits and vegetables on campus. Meal plan holders can use a meal swipe at the farmer's market for a bag of produce.

Sustainability

Starting in Spring 2024, we began composting the waste from our Dining Halls. This soil is sent to the UCF Arboretum and eventually will be used to plant produce to be used in our Dining Halls.

Join our sustainable dining program with a one-time container purchase. Use your OZZI container for meals, then return it to an OZZI machine after use. You'll get a token for your next container, reducing waste with every meal.

Dietary Accommodations

'63 South is home to the True Balance Station where students can enjoy a meal made without the top 9 allergens. Medi Eats in Knightro's provides a menu made from Halal Certified ingredients.

On the go? Visit the new Halal Shack in the Student Union which pulls inspiration from the Mediterranean and Middle East to take a twist on American wraps and bowls.

Students with allergies can reach out to our registered dietitian, Ashly Whited RD, LD at whited-ashly@aramark.com to discuss dietary accommodations.
